The special cash retention program was granted in January 2008 and, thus, is not entitled to administrative status. If the claim is reclassified to general unsecured, it is late and should be expunged. The portion of the claim related to the short-term incentive program should be expunged as the claimant was terminated prior to the projected payout date. The portion of the claim related to the working during the WARN period should be expunged as there is no liability. WARN allows for a notice period, and it is up to the discretion of the company whether the employee works during this period. Thus, the claim should be expunged in its entirety.
